REPUBLICANS BRANDED
AS "PARTY OF RETREAT"

Cummings and Roosevelt Tear
Apart G. O. P. Arguments
Against the Covenant.

(International News Service)

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 9.—A battle call of the Democracy of America to rally around the covenant of the league of nations was sounded here today by Franklin D. Roosevelt, former assistant secretary of the navy, when he formally accepted the vice presidential nomination from the Democratic party. Describing the America of the future as a "hermit nation" if she rejects the world covenant, he declared that ratification alone could fulfill the ideals held by this nation when she entered the world war. Thousands of visitors thronged the Roosevelt home town for the ceremonies attending his notification. The town people had decorated their homes and the streets in holiday garb and work was at a standstill.

Homer S. Cummings, in his notification address, branded the Republicans since 1912 as a party of destructive criticism with a purpose of repudiation and retreat while the Democratic party, in the same period, was winning for America, the homage of the world. Describing the Republican platform as a product framed by men "who have lived for many years in the blind stupor of moral negation," he declared the Democratic platform was a means of winning back the world's respect for America and an instrument of constructive progress in domestic problems.

Roosevelt, in his reply, declared America must either accept the world covenant or else "build an impenetrable wall of armament and live a hermit nation, dreaming of the past." Foreign relations and organized progress at home, he said, were America's two greatest problems today. The covenant would dispose of the first while a Democratic administration, under the kind of leadership represented by James M. Cox, the presidential nominee, would solve the other Roosevelt declared.

Mr. Roosevelt said in part:
Mr. Cummings and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Committee:

"I accept the nomination for the office of Vice-President with humility and with a deep wish to give to our beloved country the best that is in me. No one could receive a higher privilege or opportunity than to be thus associated with men and ideals which I am confident will soon receive the support of the majority of our citizens.

"In fact, I could not conscientiously accept it if I had not come to know by the closest intimacy that he who is our selection for the Presidency, and who is my chief and yours, is a man possessed of ideals which are also mine. He will give to America that kind of leadership which make us respect him and bring further greatness to our land. In James M. Cox I recognize one who can lead this nation forward in an unhalting march of progress.

"Two great problems will confront the next administration; our relations with the world and the pressing need of organized progress at home. The latter includes a systematized and intensified development of our resources and a progressive betterment of our citizenship. These matters will require the guiding hand of a President who can see his country above his party, and who, having a clear vision of things as they are, has also the independence, courage and skill to guide us along the road to things as they should be without swerving one footstep at the dictation of narrow partisans who whisper "party" or of selfish interests that murmur "profits."

BISHOP ATKINS TELLS OF DIRE
STRAITS WORLD, SENATE BLAMED

Endorses League as Plan to Stop the Fighting
In Europe.

Miss Louise Robinson returned yesterday evening from Lake Junaluska, near Asheville, N. C., where the Methodists foregather every summer, and where the Missionary Conference of the Southern church has just closed. Said Miss Robinson: "Of course, what interested me most, was the report of our special commissioners, Bishop Atkins, W. B. Beauchamp, and Dr. W. W. Pinson, sent to investigate conditions in Belgium, Poland and Czechoslovakia, the countries awarded to Southern Methodism for missionary work. Their survey was made possible by the Centenary fund, and I am told but for this fund, and the large funds subscribed by other churches, that the whole Christian missionary program would have come to a standstill. In China, I am told as a direct result of the inspiration of this fund, there is now a new movement called 'China for Christ,' and I know that the native churches are more determined than ever to be self supporting."

Sleep in the Open

Bishop Atkins and his associates were formally received in London, France, Italy, Poland and in Czechoslovakia. And while most of their work was official and had to do with making plans for future mission work, the party found time to administer some to necessities of the poor, often sleeping in the open on their trips through Poland. In that country and in Czechoslovakia, the death rate among children is appalling, but it would have been very much worse but for American relief funds.

"Bishop Atkins said that the most abject poverty reigned in the new republics," Miss Robinson declared. "He told of going to the home of people once well off and cultured, who now have only partially decayed potatoes to eat. M. Masaryk, one new President of Czechoslovakia, is almost an American having been educated in this country. Whether he is a member of our church or not, I know he is personally a Christian, and is strong for our mission work. You know Bohemia, is now a part of this country, and that John Huss, one of the greatest religious reformers that ever lived and who died at the stake, came from Bohemia.

"It sent a thrill through the large conference, when Bishop Atkins reminded that we were only returning to the Europeans, what they had formerly given to the world. The army of the Czech-Slavs performed the most heroic feat of arms ever undertaken, I think. In the great war it marched out of Austria, after refusing to fight against the Allies, and proceeded clear across Russia, fighting the hostile Bolsheviks, in an attempt to sail from Vladivostok and land in France to aid the Allied armies.

"It seemed to me people with such a heroic spirit ought to interest anybody regardless of their claims on us as Christians."

Raps the U. S. Senate

"Bishop James Atkins was eloquent and quite wrathful in his denunciation of the failure of our Senate to ratify the League of Nations. He said that the present wars in Europe were due to the failure of America to act promptly in finishing the job begun when we made possible military victory."

"As the Bishop proceeded it was easy to see that he was a firm believer in President Wilson, and many of his hearers smiled as he spoke. He stood up for the League of Nations and Wilson's part in it, and carried all with him by his eloquence and logic."

G. O. P. LEGISLATORS IN CAUCUS ON QUESTION

Upon Republican Decision May

Measure.

(International News Service)
DAYTON, O., Aug. 9.—After a night conference with Mrs. Abbey Scott Baker, political field manager of the national woman's party, Governor Cox said today that he believed women's suffrage would win in Tennessee, when the vote is taken on ratification of the Federal amendment. The legislature met today. Representative Cordell Hull, of Tennessee, is to be the personal representative of Gov. Cox and was due to arrive in Nashville early this morning. He held a long conference with Governor Cox just before he started South.

Governor Cox stated as follows: "I am convinced that the legislators of Tennessee should do their part in giving the women the vote. I believe they will. This statement is made without partisan consideration. I have promised I will support them to the end and I will do so."

REPUBLICANS CAUCUS

(International News Service)
NASHVILLE, Aug. 9.—Before the Tennessee legislature meets at noon today the Republicans of the general assembly will caucus as to their attitude in the assembly. Upon the Republican decision may depend the fate of suffrage before the legislature.

Owing to local conditions, many of the Democratic members who were formerly counted on to vote for ratification now are undecided and several counted in the favorable majority in house and senate announced by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the suffrage association, have become non-committal.

The call for the G. O. P. caucus issued by Senator H. M. Candler, a bitter opponent of suffrage and floor leader of the forces of the opposition.

CLAIM VICTORY

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—There is now a majority of the Tennessee legislature in favor of ratification of the suffrage amendment, according to the latest poll, the national woman's party announced here this afternoon. In the lower house they have 3 votes to spare, it was stated. It was admitted there may be some difficulty holding the votes now pledged.

MERCHANTS WILL HOLD 2 MEETINGS
AT 7:30 TONIGHT

Merchants of Albany and Decatur will hold two meetings tonight, when members of the Decatur Branch, Retail Merchants Association, will convene at 7:30 at the Decatur city hall and members of the Albany branch at the same hour at the Albany chamber of commerce. The call for the Decatur meeting was signed by John D. Wyker, Decatur chairman, and that for Albany by W. W. Rahm, Albany chairman.

Important business will be transacted at each meeting and a full attendance was urged by both chairmen.

ITINERARY FOR BIG
BOOSTER TRIP MADE PUBLIC TODAY; WILL BEGIN SEPTEMBER 3

Plans Completed for Greatest Commercial Tour in Local History.

MANY AUTO OWNERS
SIGN UP FOR CARS

Advance Agents Will "Bill" the Territory to be Visited by Boosters.

At a meeting of the various committees of the booster trip held in the auditorium of the Albany Chamber of Commerce, all plans were practically completed for the greatest booster trip ever carried out in the entire state of Alabama. Reports made by merchants indicate that the merchants are taking a greater interest this year than ever before. Asbury Malone, chairman of the transportation committee, reported that over fifteen cars had been signed up for each day and that many more would sign up during the next few days, which without any doubt will result in having at least twenty cars every day which is a much greater showing than in the past.

One of the important features connected with the trip this year is that advance agents are to go out over the itinerary to advertise the fact that the boosters are coming. Large posters will be put up in every community within a radius of thirty-five miles telling of the coming of the boosters and the dates they will be there. Much satisfaction is being expressed by many ladies of the city in being able to go on the trips this year, which is another added feature over the trips in the past.

The report of the Itinerary Committee was accepted last Friday night. The itinerary takes in many communities which were not visited last year, and all members of the various committees are much pleased with it. It is as follows:

Friday, September 3rd.

Flint—9:00 a. m.
Hartselle—10:00 a. m.

Safety Device
Is Planned at Decatur School

A modern fire escape for the Decatur schools is the plan of the municipal officials. The educational committee of the council has under consideration the purchase of a "slide", similar to the ones being used in many of the larger cities. The new "slides" are replacing the old stairway fire escapes in many schools. The apparatus is erected on the outside of the building and is of galvanized iron. The "slide" is really a tube with a sloping slide inside, large enough for one person.

On the call for fire drill, the children enter the tube in the second floor and slide quickly down to the ground, where they are gently thrust to safety.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Every Week He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question

This Week's Question:

At what age should a young man enter business, and to what extent should he be educated?

The Answers:

A. M. SMITH—"I think a man should enter business by the time he is 25 years old, or sooner if he has the experience and education necessary to fit him for any business he may choose to enter, as he is not apt to amount to very much financially as long as he works for the other fellow. As to his education, he should at least have a high school education."

T. E. WILLIAMS—"A young man should enter business when he is confident of his success in that particular line of business. This age I think is usually attained between the age of 23 and 27. Then to cope with the business world of today, he should have a college education and special training in the business he enters."

T. G. CRANE—"There is no definite age that you can set for a young man to go into business, but the sooner he gets into the business he wants to follow, the better. A man may be successful without an education, but the more he has, the better. A common school education is sufficient, provided it is followed up with some special training on the line he intends to follow. This is the age of specializing."

H. M. SAFLEY—"A young man should enter his business career at the age of 21 years, for at that age responsibility rests upon himself as to the future. To get an early start, means an early success which we all enjoy. As to the education, it depends largely on the kind of business he chooses, but he should at least have a high school education."

W. A. WEATHERFORD—"A young man should not enter business until 21 years of age, and then he should make sure to enter the line he is most fitted for. As to the education, he should at least have a high school education with plenty of good common sense, which is worth as much as the education."

COMPLETE BLOCKADE OF RUSSIANS IS PROPOSED

France Would Invite the United States to Join the Other Nations.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Russian cavalry, advancing in mass formation, has occupied Trzanyez, 50 miles north of Warsaw and are now moving upon Mlada and Ciechanol, said a Polish war office telegram from Warsaw today.

(International News Service)

PARIS, Aug. 9.—Russian cavalry has cut the Warsaw-Danzig railway south of Mlava, closing the "traffic corridor" between Poland and the Baltic sea according to a official dispatch to the foreign office from Warsaw this afternoon. All of the allied supplies were being sent into Poland via that railway.

ARMISTICE REPORTED

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Prussia has agreed to a four day truce on the Polish battle front for a discussion of armistice terms and peace preliminaries, it was reported in the lobby of the house of commons this evening.

(International News Service)

HYTHE, England, Aug. 9.—While there appears little likelihood that Great Britain and France will make formal declaration of war against Russia, Premier Lloyd George and Premier Millerand have allowed it to be known "the allies are determined to prevent the Russian Bolsheviks from advancing into Western Europe."

Military and naval plans that were drawn up last night by Foch, Wilson, chief of the British general staff and Earl Baddeley, commander of the British grand fleet, were taken up by the Anglo-French premiers today.

These plans, it is understood, provide for protective measures and the possibility of a more drastic blockade of Soviet Russia.

Rejection by Moscow of Great Britain's proposal for a ten-day truce to discuss armistice terms and peace preliminaries, has precipitated a critical situation and proved a severe set back to Premier Lloyd George's peace effort. No effort is made in official circles to disguise the menace in the Polish situation. The conference was resumed at ten o'clock at Hythe.

It is confidently believed the allies will impose a blockade completely isolating Russia from the outside world. One of the chief fears of France, it became known, arises from the possibility of an alliance between Germany and Russia.

BLOCKADE PROPOSED

(International News Service)

PARIS, Aug. 9.—France is proposing an absolute blockade of Russia with the provision that the United States be requested to join it, said a dispatch to the Matin from Hythe, England, where the premiers are in conference today. France, adds the dispatch, takes the view that "powers other than the principal allied nations, should be compelled to join the blockade." According to the Matin's correspondent at Hythe, there is little likelihood that either France or Britain will send armies to Poland to fight Russia, because both countries fear labor troubles at home if they interfere in a military way.

DISCIPLINE MORE IMPORTANT THAN POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

Some editorial writers are not content to let Secretary Baker's ruling stand, forbidding army officers to participate in politics, despite the fact that Baker is but upholding a time honored policy of this nation. One sentence from a tirade of opposition, written no doubt by a strong Republican, is: "Our objection, is the possible domination of free action on the part of subordinates by those higher up." A soldier, especially one of high rank, surrenders many civil privileges when he accepts the honor and responsibility of defending his country. And one of them, least valued by a true soldier, is active participation in politics. The first duty of an army officer is learn and practice implicit obedience to the orders of his government. Unless of course, we shall discard all the best traditions of the past as to the management of armies. Implicit obedience has its draw back. The six hundred who charged a whole Russian army in the Crimean war, might have saved their necks if they had been allowed to stop and argue and "reason why." But to those who realize the true place and dignity of warfare, the glory of the Light Brigade, will never fail just because "theirs was not to reason why, theirs was to do and die" and because they did die in obedience to orders.

For officers to take part in politics would have at least two bad effects. One would be the destruction of discipline, just as it was destroyed by the soldiers and working men's soviets in the Russian army preparatory to its giving away to the Germans on the Eastern front, during the great war. Would American officers and soldiers be in a very good frame of mind to fight the enemy, just after they had engaged in a red hot dispute among themselves over some political subject? And, if politics were allowed in the army, the strongest and best placed officers would spend too much time trying to deliver their entire commands to certain parties and factions. In the victories as reported of the present Russian army, discipline must be playing an important part, just as lack of discipline made a mock of the Russians during the great war. The American policy for soldiers and sailors has ever been to keep those classes separate and distinct from political influence on the one hand, and to keep the Army and Navy on the other hand, from seeking to influence elections.

It is well that Secretary Baker made our American custom a regular military regulation.

SOMETHING OUR
UNCLE SHOULD LEARN

"University in Khaki" new name for American Army" is the heading of the latest half column of so of space the United States war department has attempted to graft from The Daily. The copy is well typed and it might be of interest to half a dozen or so readers of this newspaper. The only real objection to it is that it is nothing more nor less than advertising for the United States army. The army would not attempt to obtain its officers without salary, it would not attempt to buy its supplies free of cost—there is no more reason why it should try to obtain its newspaper advertising, without paying for it. The army is a fairly well organized assembly and conducts its affairs on a business-like basis, except where newspapers are concerned. Then it pursues a policy of petty grafting, which, to say the least, has become exceedingly obnoxious to the majority of newspaper publishers, who are getting grey-headed and wrinkled trying to meet newspaper paper bills at 14 to 20 cents a pound.

The article received by The Daily carries a "note" from Sergeant Ball, in charge of the local recruiting station, who requests publication "for the interest of the army," quoting Col. Saffaruns, state recruiting officer, to that effect. The Daily does not blame Sergeant Ball. He was, no doubt, carrying out his orders. Neither does the Daily blame Col. Saffaruns, who, likewise, was doing what he had been instructed to do. The fault does not rest with the local and state army representatives. The blame is higher up than that. The sooner the chiefs of the war department attend their own "University" and learn that newspapers no longer will stand for free space grabbing, the sooner will the attractions of the army be presented through the medium of The Daily advertising columns.

to the people of this section. The Daily, in the past, has been liberal in the matter of publication of free propaganda for the army, but like the Raven it now repeats "Nevermore, Nevermore." When the army has news to be published, The Daily will be glad to print it, but none of this "University in Khaki" stuff.

The American Press, a trade journal devoted to the interests of the smaller publications of the nation, this week calls attention to a quarter of a page advertisement in The New York Times, which the government war department paid for at the regular rates of The Times. The same advertisement appeared in a number of the other metropolitan journals—but none of the smaller papers received it. The American Press says "New York Times gets the money, country papers get the propaganda." That's the unvarnished truth, but The Daily henceforth and forever ceases to be a free propaganda agent for the United States Government.

Local Kiwanians who attended the Ladies Night meeting of the Columbia, Tenn., club declare they had one big time. The visitors were given a warm welcome by W. G. Beasley, president of the Columbia Club and Andrew Dale, who delivered the welcoming address.

The speaker of the evening was Congressman L. P. Padgett, who made a stirring address on "Peace and War." He told of the extravagance of this nation, declaring the American national debt is $24,000,000,000. "In order that you may grasp what this means," he said, "I tell you that 1,000,000,000 minutes have been not passed since the birth of Christ."

Rally Around the League of Nations

"In our world problems, we must either shut our eyes, sell our newly built merchant marine to more far-sighted foreign powers, crush utterly by embargo and harassing legislation our foreign trade, close our ports, build an impenetrable wall of costly armaments and live, as the Orient used to live, a hermit nation, dreaming of the past; or, we must open our eyes and see that modern civilization has become so complex and the lives of civilized men so interwoven with the lives of other men in other countries as to make it impossible to be in this world and not of it."

Mr. Roosevelt strongly endorsed the League of Nations, declaring that "peace" must mean a peace that will last. "The league of nations is a practical solution of a practical situation," he said. "It is no more perfect than our original constitution, which has been amended 18 times and will soon, we hope, be amended the 19th, was perfect." Mr. Roosevelt's indirect reference to suffrage was received with cheers by the advocates of the ballot for women.

Coming back to domestic problems, the vice presidential candidate declared. "Among the most pressing of these national needs I place the bettering of our citizenship, the extension of teaching to over 5,000,000 of our population above the age of ten who are illiterate, the strengthening of our immigration laws to exclude the physically and morally unfit, the improvement of working condition specially in the congested centers, the extension of communications to make rural life more attractive, the further protection of child life and of women in industry. All these demand action. If we raise the standard of education, of physical fitness, or moral sense, the generations to come will have no difficulty in coping with the problems of material economics."

Mr. Roosevelt declared the government needs reorganization in both its administration and law-making branches and pledged himself and his democratic associates to give to the public service the same "or even higher interest and efficiency than to private affairs."

Music will be furnished by local musicians under personal direction of W. J. Kopp of Cincinnati, who is known from coast to coast as a musical director, and who is also a member of Cincinnati Symphony.

A gasoline stove was the cause of the first fire in Albany this month. The department was called to the home of J. P. Chemicals were used to extinguish the blaze.

Hot Days Trying
On Elderly Folks

Sluggish, languid, constipated feeling is quickly removed by
Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

THOSE who are past the prime of life know the discomforts of hot weather. Exercise is tiring, and constant sitting around soon brings constipation. It is especially dangerous for elderly people to allow constipation to continue for it creates poisons in the system that may bring on a serious illness.

If you pass a single day without full and free elimination, do so many thousands of elderly folks do and at once take a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and you will find prompt relief. It is only by doing this that you can be sure of feeling well. You must not trust constipation to correct itself.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is particularly suited to elderly people as it is a combination of simple, laxative herbs with pepsin that acts gently and without griping. Unlike so many medicines, it can be used exclusively without loss.

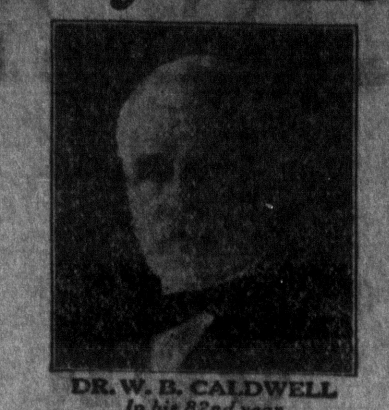

Millions of people of all ages suffer from occasional or chronic constipation. Let them send name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 512 Washington Street, Monticello, Ill., for a free sample bottle of his wonderful Syrup Pepsin. 8 million bottles were bought at drug stores last year, the largest sale in the world.

No person of advancing years should be without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin these summer days. Any druggist will sell it to you. It is economical.

A DREAM OF SUMMER
Bland as the morning breath of June
The southwest breezes play;
And, through its haze, the winter
noon
Seems warm as summer's day

The snow-plumed Angel of the North
Has dropped his icy spear;
Again the mossy earth looks forth,
Again the streams gush clear.

The fox his hillside cell forsakes,
The muskrat leaves his nook,
The bluebird in the meadow brakes
Is singing with the brook.
"Bear up, Oh, Mother Nature! Cry.
Bird, breeze, and streamlet free;
Our winter voices prophesy
Of Summer days to thee!

So, in those winters of the soul,
By bitter beasts and drear
O'erswept from Memory's frozen pole,
Will Sunny days appear.
Reviving Hope and Faith, they show
The soul its living powers,
And how beneath the winter's snow
Lie germs of summer flowers!

The night is mother of the day,
The winter of the Spring,
And ever upon old Decay
The greenest mosses cling.
Behind the cloud the star—light
lurks,
Through showers the sunbeams fall;
For God, who loveth all His works,
Has left His Hope with all!

—John Greenleaf Whittier.

MISS WHATLEY OF FLORIDA, COMPLIMENTED
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Branum entertained Friday evening, complimenting Mrs. Lodrick Whatley's house guest, Miss Mary Whatley of St. Augustine, Fla.

The rooms were prettily decorated with a profusion of sun flowers, ferns and crepe myrtle, and three tables of rock were arranged for the game.
Later in the evening a delicious ice course was served.

CANAL STREET ROOK
Mrs. J. B. Cassels entertained the Canal street Rook club this week at her home on Canal street.

Mrs. Philip Humphrey and Mrs. LeRoy McIntire were awarded the prizes for score.

Mrs. Earl Calvin and little son who have been spending the past two weeks as the guests of Mrs. Howard McEnty will leave Saturday for Birmingham where they will spend a week as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Robinson before returning to their home in Albany. During their visit here, Mrs. Calvin received many social courtesies and was warmly welcomed by her old friends.—Bessemer Advertiser.

Athens News

The Epworth Leaguers put on a pageant Sunday that would have done credit to a much larger place than Athens.
Don Roseman was the promoter and under his directing it was a complete success. Time forbids mentioning all those taking part but a few must be mentioned. Clarence Norwood and Miss Maile Pettus both had leading parts and performed them well.

Mrs. Julius Hine was laid to rest Wednesday afternoon, having passed away in the hospital in Albany. She was the wife of Thos. Hine.

Billie Richardson came back Wednesday from a trip through Georgia. His wife and babies are in Athens.
Miss Madeline Dix, of Decatur, is visiting her relatives in Athens and Limestone county. She is now with Mayor Hine and family and is receiving a glad welcome from her many friends in Athens.

Showers are predicted for this week by the following government forecast: "For the South Atlantic and East Gulf States. Considered chances, moderately war a weather, and occasional showers are indicated for the week."

Art Criticism.

A cancelled painter in Brooklyn named Tilton, carried away by his enthusiasm for his own productions, declared at a studio tea to a group of his devotees: "After all, there are but three great painters—Titian, Tintoretto and Tilton." When the remark was repeated to Mrs. W. W. Storey, mother of the eminent painter, Julian Storey, she exclaimed: "Well, the only thing I know to equal the 'Assumption' of Titian is the assumption of Tilton."

Rupture Expert Here

SEELEY, FAMOUS IN THIS SPECIALTY; CALLED TO DECATUR

F. H. Seeley, of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted truss expert, will personally be at the Echols Hotel and will remain in Decatur this Tuesday only, Aug. 10. Mr. Seeley says: "The Spermatic Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Being a vast advancement over all former methods—exemplifying instantaneous effects, immediately appreciable and withstanding any strain or position. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatment or prescriptions. Mr. Seeley has documents from the United States Government, Washington, D. C., for inspection. All charity cases without charge, or if any interested call, he will be glad to show same without charge or fit them if desired. Business demands prevent stopping at any other place in this section.

Allies Determine Russia Shall Not

France are in complete accord as to the method of stopping the Russian Bolshevik army in its advance toward continental Europe," said a Central News Dispatch from Hythe today. It added "the British navy will be mobilized at once."

SITUATION MORE HOPEFUL

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The Polish situation presents a more hopeful view according to dispatches received from the American legation at Warsaw, Secretary of State Colby announced this afternoon. While the Bolshevik troops still are in a disturbing distance of Warsaw, the Polish troops are defending the city with a "new spirit" Secretary said the dispatches declared.

Orders from Moscow for the Polish forces to fall back across the Bug river because of lack of ammunition, have been intercepted by the Polish state department advisers said. The American legation is preparing to leave Warsaw, the state department was advised today.

GERMAN OVERTURES

(International News Service.) PARIS, Aug. 9.—Germany has made several unofficial overtures to join the allies against Soviet Russia, if the allies will renounce the treaty of Versailles, it was learned from sources close to the French foreign office this afternoon. In view of the neutrality protestations of Dr. Walter Von Simons, the German foreign secretary, foreign office officials considered the unofficial overtures as part of a "double game" that Germany is attempting to play.

Chief Hendrix in Race for Re-election

Chief of Police J. N. Hendrix today formally announced his candidacy to succeed himself as head of the Albany police department. Mr. Hendrix was appointed chief of police by the city council a year ago and has held the office since that time. He stated he would make the race on his record. Mr. Hendrix has a large circle of friends in Albany and they are predicting he will be re-elected.

INJURIES FATAL TO RICHARD STINSON

FARMER LOCAL RESIDENT WILL BE BURIED HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Funeral services will be held at Oakwood cemetery here this afternoon for Richard Stinson, aged 51, who died in the city hospital at Florence Saturday as a result of injuries received Friday in a head-on collision between two locomotives in the Tri-Cities.

Mr. Stinson was, at one time, a resident of Austinville and was well known in the Twin Cities. He was engaged as foreman switchman with the J. C. White Construction company.

During his residence at Austinville, Mr. Stinson was an employee of the Louisville and Nashville railroad. He was active in church and civil circles at Austinville. He was a teacher in the Sunday School of the Austinville Methodist church.

The deceased was a cousin of O. P. Stinson, of Albany and is survived by his wife and two children, Dean and Forrest Stinson, the latter of Little Rock, Ark.; a niece, Miss Artie Hudson and a nephew Tom Hudson, of the Twin Cities.

Mr. Stinson suffered a crushed skull when two engines collided Friday afternoon. He was rushed to the city hospital where he was given every medical attention.

The deceased had a host of friends in the Twin Cities to whom the announcement of his sudden death will be a great shock.

REVIVAL BEGUN AT CHURCH OF CHRIST

MEETINGS WILL BE HELD ALL WEEK. CORDIAL INVITATION TO PUBLIC

The revival at the Jackson street Church of Christ began auspiciously Friday a. m., with Rev. J. H. Horton, of Warrior, Ala., as the evangelist in charge. J. Petty Ezell, the minister for this church, has been detained in revival work near Bowling Green, Ky., but is expected to return and aid in the meeting the last of this week. There was no service at the East Side Baptist church yesterday morning and many of that congregation heard Rev. Horton.

The text chosen was from the 12th chapter of Romans 1st and 2nd verses: "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be ye not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the re-creating of your mind, that ye may prove what is good, and acceptable and perfect will of God." The speaker said that the transfiguration referred to by St. Paul, was an inward change, and was dependent upon the work of the Spirit of God. According to Elder C. J. Campbell of this church the meetings will continue for the balance of the week, with a cordial invitation to the public generally to attend.

Spring Fever Over, Cupid on the Job Again in Morgan

Cupid is again on the war path after a long absence from the Twin Cities.

Seven couples wishing to have the proverbial knot of matrimony put securely upon them have made application to Probate Clerk John Green for the license slip. Well they all got it and the sea of matrimony is as yet calm for the seven from the latest reports. The list included licenses issued to:

Bennie Wray and Georgia Dutton. W. G. Remington and Elsie Denton. Omar A. Black and Vina Childers. E. L. Lemons and Lucy Ann Tyler. Jas. A. Hendrix and Novel Yancy. Oliver J. Reeves and Samatha Anderson.

In addition to this number Probate Clerk Green slipped the word to the cub reporter that the matrimonial intentions in the "black belt" was also heavy. Brother Green officiated in the roll of the parson this morning when the colored folks tied up.

Mack Cross and Cora Jolly were the two that furnished the Probate office another job.

Chief Riggsbey in the Hospital

Chief of Police Riggsbey is at the Benevolent hospital where he underwent an operation. He is expected to be able to resume his duties within the next few days.

NO NOTE SENT TO PARIS, U. S. CLAIMS

SECRETARY COLBY DENIES AMERICA HAS DISPATCHED COMMUNICATION TO FRENCH

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Reports from Paris that the American government has sent a note to France on the Russo-Polish situation were officially denied today. While a flat denial was made that this government had dispatched such a note to France, Secretary of State Colby refused to discuss the probable course of the United States. In the light of the denial of the state department, it was stated the Paris report might have arisen from the informal exchange of information and views which this government is understood to have conducted with the allies.

PART OF NOTE ARRIVES

(International News Service.) PARIS, August 9.—The American state department is sending a note to France, referring to the Russo-Polish situation. Part of the note was received by the foreign office during the morning and the balance was expected to arrive tonight. Foreign office officials will say nothing about the communication, except that it referred to the Bolshevik advance.

PRINCESS TUESDAY

ALICE JOYCE IN SCENE FROM VITAGRAPH'S "DOLLARS AND THE WOMAN"

Alice Joyce has a role of unusual interest in "Dollars and the Woman." It is a story of timely interest dealing with the domestic problem in these days when the cost of living is responsible for so much unhappiness. It provides her with one of the best roles of her brilliant career.

LEATRICE JOY TO PORTRAY ROSALIE PRINCESS TODAY

After a search for an ideal type that he had conducted for a month, Maxwell Karger, Director General of Screen Classics, Inc., engaged Leatrice Joy to play the leading feminine role in "The Right of Way," which shows at the Princess Theatre Today. A picturization of the celebrated novel by Sir Gilbert Parker, starring Bert Lytell in the part of "Beauty" Steele, will be Metro's next Lytell release following "Lombardi, Ltd."

Miss Joy will be seen as Rosalie Eventual, a young French Canadian schoolmistress whose spiritual influence is a powerful factor in the regeneration of "Beauty" Steele after a blow on the head has caused the Montreal barrister to lose all recollection of his past life. In the northern Canadian woods Rosalie is chosen, because of her deep religious fervor, to participate in a reproduction of the Biblical Passion Play.

Miss Joy's services were loaned to Screen Classics, Inc., by George Loane Tucker. That producing director has Miss Joy under contract for three years and permitted her to take the leading feminine role in the Lytell production as it happened that he had no immediate call for her.

Leatrice Joy's dramatic experience embraces three years in motion pictures and a brief period on the stage as a member of a stock company in San Diego, California. She is twenty-two years old. Born in New Orleans, La., she was educated at the Sacred Heart Academy and one of the local high schools. While she was still a student in high school she was starred in a Pathe release produced by the Nola Film Company.

IS IT WISE TO BUY FROM STRANGERS?

The art of buying advantageously, no matter whether it is a pair of shoe strings, an automobile, or any of the hundred and one things you need from day to day, is acquired largely by experience united with clear insight and common sense and dealing with a firm you KNOW to be honest.

In purchasing any article, the buyer should ask himself or herself these questions: Is it a reliable article of standard make?

Is It An Imitation or the Genuine?

And, most important, is the man from whom it is bought honest? What is his reputation for square dealing? How well do I know him? Will he make good my purchase in case it should prove to be defective?

When you can choose between buying from a stranger and some one you are acquainted with, or can meet face to face, surely it is vastly more prudent and satisfactory to buy from the latter.

Albany and Decatur merchants, as a whole, enjoy a high reputation for—

Square Dealing and Honest Values---

They are right here all the time to personally guarantee you satisfaction.

Isn't it wiser, safer and more satisfactory to trade with someone whom you can "see," with whom you come in personal contact, than to send your money away from where you live to people who are utter strangers to you and whom you have to take a chance with?

Stomach Troubles Made Him Feel Sick at Meal Times, But Now Always Enjoys His Meals.

DO YOU enjoy your meals? Eat without the dread of the after effects?

Lack of appetite, and a disagreeable, sick-at-the-stomach feeling after meals, usually indicate that your digestive organs are not working properly. As a result, you will feel weak, lose weight and lack the energy that is to be derived from well-digested food.

A valuable help in correcting such conditions is mentioned by the Rev. M. K. McKenzie, of Route 1, Section 1.

Ala., who writes: "I had stomach trouble. When I would go to eat, I would turn sick. I took one bottle of Ziron, and it cured me. Am always ready for my meals and enjoy them. I think it is a fine medicine."

If your food hurts you, if your appetite is poor, if you are pale, weak and run-down, and have other symptoms that indicate your system needs help, try Ziron. It will put iron into your blood and help build you up. Take it according to directions, and if not benefited by the first bottle, the money-back guarantee will protect you. Ask your druggist.

FARCE COMEDY IS WON BY ELKMONT BY 12 TO 9 SCORE

Elkmont 12, Y. M. C. A. 9; farce comedy with a few highlights of melodrama. Could have added some footlights, an orchestra and a hula-hula dancer and called it burlesque. In that case the programs would read—Scene—Ball park; Time, Friday.

The story opened in rather melodramatic fashion, the locals occupying the center of the stage in the first act by rushing three counters across the plate. Things rocked along until the third scene when Elkmont entered from up stage and held the attention of the audience by sending four across the pan.

Until the last act, the affair was pure unadulterated comedy, Elkmont scoring almost at will. Approaching the climax, in the ninth and last scene, Steadman, crack catcher of the local cast, who was thought to have been theatrically killed in the second when he hurt his arm, and was removed from the play, suddenly proved he wasn't dead at all and batted for W. Thompson, landing safe on Campbell's error.

A base hit shower followed, the locals counting five times. The audience appreciated the climax but thought it came a little late.

The box score follows:

ELKMONT	AB	R	H	PO	A	E

Hudson Super-Six
Cabriolet
With Patent Leather Top

Another New Hudson Model

The Cabriolet With Roadster Capacity and Finest Car Comfort and Distinction

For the owner-driver who must use his car in all seasons and who demands first-class transportation, we recommend the new Hudson Super-Six Cabriolet.

An earlier model of this type was one of the most popular cars that ever carried the Hudson name plate. But the new car has many advantages over it. There is greater efficiency and reliability—just as has marked the progress of the Super-Six with each succeeding year. And there is greater comfort and, of course, the newest and most advanced appointments. The smart lines and easy driving, comfortable riding qualities of the earlier model are retained.

It is as alert in action as a hare—a quality which accounts for much to those who must drive on congested highways, when the ability to weave in and out through traffic, without effort to driver or car, means much in time and motor satisfaction.

The Cabriolet answers every want of the roadster type and gives in addition full protection in all seasons, and a rich distinction possible only to the highest type enclosed car.
